Welcome to Fort Wayne Pet Food Pantry!

November 2019

Happy Holiday Season, FWPPF Friends!

November started with us reeling from the kindness and generosity from Rich's Auto and Charlie's Birthday Bash. We raised over $2,000 dollars and a thousand pounds of pet food! We were then graciously chosen to receive C.H. Robinson's local employee fundraising totals, followed by a generous donation from local artist, Amanda Dornbush. To wrap up November's donations, Paul Davis restoration collected over 1,300 pounds of food and some financial contributions, while we also began a partnership with Covington Veterinary Services, and they are off to a phenomenal start with the amount of food already collected. To say that we are overwhelmed, with gratitude, would be an understatement.

Thank you so much!

Angel Trees and Holiday Help

Beginning the week of Thanksgiving, our Angel Trees will be up at all three Pet Supplies Plus locations. Check the wish tags on the trees, purchase the needed item and leave it in the donation bins near the trees for our volunteers to pick up, it's just that easy!

Giving Tuesday is coming up fast! Check out our Facebook page for more information! To make direct, online donations, please visit our Paypal link.

Beginning on Monday, Dec. 9th, from 1:30-4:30 pm, we will be opening our doors at 2502 Church Street to accept donations. We will continue this every other Monday, moving forward.

In our paper newsletter edition, you will notice an addressed envelope. Please keep FW Pet Food Pantry in mind when you are choosing a charity to support.

Donation Site Spotlight - Rich's Auto

This year, instead of the donation site contest, we will be featuring individual sites each month in our newsletter, so that everyone gets recognized over the course of the year.

Thank you again to Rich's Auto Center for their deep generosity as well as their commitment to sponsor most of our ziplock bags, which provide the means of food delivery to our neighbors and clients! Thank you Charlie and Rich's Auto for your kindness and support!

So many ways to help keep pets at home!
